

PRESS RELEASE

Isosceles Open Their Northern Office

STAINES, MIDDLESEX. WEDNESDAY, 28th SEPTEMBER 2011 --
- Isosceles Finance, providers of interim, part-time and outsourced accounting and HR are delighted to announce the opening of their Sheffield office.

Isosceles, who have successfully supported over 100 ambitious companies from their South West London base, have opened a second office, in Sheffield, to support one of their largest and longest standing clients, LINE Communications and implement the next stage of their growth strategy.

"We are delighted that Isosceles have opened a second office in Sheffield to support our operations here."
Piers Lea, CEO, LINE Communications (UK market leader in bespoke e-learning)

The new office which opened on 12th September, is in St. James House in the heart of the City Centre and is headed up by Dave Eaton. Initially the office will be staffed by three people but Isosceles plan to expand quickly and are currently recruiting.

"We selected Sheffield because of its high concentration of creative and digital (CDI) companies. Our core competencies are in the technology sector and Sheffield is the perfect location for our northern base", commented Mike O'Connell, CEO of Isosceles. "We have received a tremendous welcome from the City, CreativeSheffield in particular, and the availability and calibre of professionals here is reassuringly high."

Isosceles will deliver their full service portfolio from both their Staines and Sheffield Offices.

Helen Mirfin-Boukouris Cabinet Member for Business, Jobs and Growth reflects: "Sheffield is thrilled that Isosceles has chosen the city as the location for their new office, demonstrating their confidence in both the financial skills and the CDI sector. We hope their experience has shown we are a business friendly city."

About Isosceles

Isosceles whose maxim is 'helping ambitious companies achieve their potential' was founded to provide clients with affordable 'best in class' support in the form of interim, part-time and outsourced accounting and outsourced HR solutions. Isosceles believe emerging and growing businesses need an effective accounting and HR function as much as established corporations.

Isosceles' clients are largely early stage, funded or rapidly growing companies. Their clients include four recipients of the Tech Track 100 Award. The largest client is a fully listed £200m turnover company, the smallest is an Imperial College spinout.
